

ALWIN LEHNER SCHOLARSHIP

Posting for start of winter semester 2025/26

Alwin Lehner was one of the founders of the family-owned enterprise ALPLA and, for many years, the driving force behind its innovations.

At 200 locations in 46 countries, ALPLA manufactures plastic packaging such as bottles, closures, injection-moulded parts, preforms and tubes, making it one of the world's leading companies in the packaging industry.

Topics such as innovation, sustainability and recycling are extremely important to ALPLA. There are numerous initiatives and collaborations in these areas that present new and interesting opportunities for the future.

ALPLArecycling stands for bundled expertise in plastics recycling. Today, our international network comprises 14 plants in 10 countries.

In memory of Alwin Lehner, the ALPLA Group offers a scholarship for particularly talented and committed students. Applicants must be eligible and studying at an institution supported by ALPLA (university, university of applied sciences) in a field of study relevant to ALPLA.

Which are the sponsored field of studies at the University of Leoben - MUL?

- Circular Engineering, MSc
- Kunststofftechnik, MSc
- Materialwirtschaft und Werkstofftechnologie, BSc
- Recyclingtechnik, MSc
- Responsible Consumption and Production, MSc
- Umwelt- und Klimaschutztechnik, MSc

What do I receive as a scholarship holder and what do I have to do to get it?

As a scholarship holder, you will receive 3.600 Euros per semester for two academic years, paid out at the beginning of each semester. The prerequisite is a positive performance record of at least 20 ECTS points per semester and the status of a full-time student.

We would like to draw your attention to the possibility of completing internships at ALPLA during the scholarship. Internships at one of the many ALPLA locations abroad are particularly attractive.

Scholarship holders are assigned a mentor for the duration of the scholarship. The mentor is the main contact person for the scholarship holders and supports them during their introduction to the company and throughout the entire duration of the scholarship program.
